Megan,

Chris, as a private individual, has the movie, printed the tickets and is selling them.
Once the movie has been shown he will donate the profits to the BPOU.

Joe, is the gentlemen collecting money for the movie tickets aware of the fact that all money for the BPOU needs to be deposited w/in 10 days of its receipt? Does he have my address to bring them to me or should I go get them from him. With that in mind, how come you didn't ask me if I would be willing to receive the funds for the ticket sales (as I have done in the past)? What is this guys name and contact information? Thanks.

Based on the number of people in the email, I'd say that it was a BPOU fundraiser. However, I think I have another email to forward you too.

Subject: "Waiting for Superman"

To All,

One week from tonight we will be holding our BPOU Fundraiser by showing the movie "Waiting for Superman." It is a documentary which shows our school system and the problems that we have. The event kicks off at 6:00 pm with a social hour featuring free appetizers and a cash bar. The movie starts at 7:00 pm and runs until about 8:30 pm. After the movie hopefully we can put together a discussion panel (this is still in the works).

We are down to 32 tickets remaining - so act fast! We hope to see you there.
