2013 - 2014 Minnesota Campaign Finance Summary

The Campaign Finance and Public Disclosure Board is charged with collecting campaign finance disclosure reports from the state office candidates, political party units, political committees and funds, independent expenditure committees and funds, and ballot question committees and funds that are regulated by Minnesota Statutes Chapter 10A. This summary of campaign finance information is derived from the reports filed with the Board during 2013 and 2014, and provides condensed information on financial activity and status at the end of 2014 as reported by each candidate, party unit, and committee or fund. Additionally, this summary provides a comprehensive listing of all major donors during the two-year period with the amount of each contribution. The summary also provides a complete listing of the independent expenditures made for and against candidates in 2014.

The Board has also released the Overview of Expenditures and Sources of Funding for the 2014 Election which focuses on totaling and comparing the campaign expenditures and independent expenditures made for each constitutional and legislative race in 2014. This document is available on the Board's website.

Legislation passed in 2013 replaced annual contribution and spending limits with limits that apply to a two-year period of time. The two-year periods are referred to as election cycle segments. Each segment contains one odd-numbered non-election year and one even-numbered election year. However, while contribution and expenditure limits apply to a two year segment, the reporting of campaign finance activity is based on a calendar year. The information for each committee or fund in the summary is provided for calendar years 2013 and 2014.

The 2013 – 2014 election cycle segment contained the 2014 general election at which all constitutional offices, the state house of representatives, and select judicial offices were up for election. The state senate was not on the 2014 ballot, and there were no constitutional amendment ballot questions before the voters.

Reports were filed by the principal campaign committees of 24 candidates for 4 constitutional office seats, 271 candidates for 134 house of representatives seats, 31 candidates for judicial seats up for election, and 7 candidates in two special elections to fill a vacancy in office. The summary includes indicators that identify the constitutional and house of representatives candidates who won primary and general elections. Additionally, this summary includes data supplied by 325 political party units and 394 political committees and funds registered with the Board.

Independent expenditure political committees and funds and ballot question committees and funds are permitted to accept corporate and other unregistered association contributions but are limited to making independent expenditures, making ballot question expenditures, and contributing to other independent expenditure and ballot question committees and funds. This summary includes reported information for 48 independent expenditure committees and funds and 15 ballot question committees and funds.

The information provided for each committee or fund includes total contributions received, total contributions made, total expenditures, beginning and ending cash balances, and if applicable the total amount of public subsidy payments received. Outstanding loans payable, unpaid bills, and disbursements other than campaign expenditures are not itemized in the summary but are reflected in the totals reported in the summary. The data filed in campaign finance reports generally has not been verified or audited by the Board.

Over the years 2013 and 2014, constitutional office candidates who filed for office reported receiving $8,348,798 from individual contributors, $604,748 from political committees and funds, $146,324 from political parties, and $308,093 from lobbyists. Public subsidy payments to constitutional candidates totaled $1,354,543. House candidates who filed for office reported receiving $4,536,339 from individual contributors, $816,033 from political committees and funds, $764,581 from political parties, and $182,347 from lobbyists. Public subsidy payments to house of representatives candidates totaled $1,075,013. A total of $696,169 in contributions was reported received by 31 judicial candidates who filed for office.

Not included in the above totals are committees of candidates who did not file for office. Those committees for constitutional, legislative, and judicial candidates reported receiving $2,504,891 in receipts and making total expenditures of $2,224,655.

The following is a summary of contributions of $500 or more received in the 2013- 2014 election cycle segment by candidates running for office. Constitutional office candidates received 4,715 donations totaling $6,147,997 (65% of the total contributions received by constitutional office candidates in 2013 and 2014). House candidates received 3,567 donations totaling $2,666,642 (42% of the total contributions received by house candidates in 2013 and 2014). Judicial candidates received 273 donations totaling $388,610 (56% of the total contributions received by judicial candidates in 2013 and 2014). A listing of the candidate committees that received contributions in aggregate of $500 or more and the source of the contributions begins on page 111.

Most candidates voluntarily agree to limit expenditures in order to receive public subsidies. These subsidies include direct payments to eligible candidates during election years and the right to participate in the Political Contribution Refund (PCR) program. Agreements to abide by spending limits in order to receive public subsidies were signed by 93% of registered candidates filing for office. A total of $2,429,556 in public subsidy was distributed to constitutional and house of representatives candidates for the 2014 election. See page 5 for a breakdown of public subsidy by office.

Campaign expenditures are made for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of a candidate and apply toward the expenditure limit applicable to candidates who signed a Public Subsidy Agreement. In the 2013 and 2014 election cycle segment, campaign expenditures for constitutional office candidates who filed for office totaled $11,235,008. House candidate campaign expenditures for 271 candidates who filed for office totaled $7,495,500.

Reports filed by 325 political party units during the 2013 and 2014 election cycle segment disclosed receipt of contributions totaling $28,083,824 from which they made contributions of $6,479,170 to state candidate committees and other political party units and $5,606,384 in independent expenditures. Information on political party units starts on page 207.

The 394 political committees and funds (not including independent expenditure committees and funds) reported receiving $43,956,941 in contributions from which they made contributions of $16,692,933 to state candidate committees, political party units, and other political committees and funds and $1,525,214 in independent expenditures. Information on political committees and funds starts on page 232.

The 48 independent expenditure committees and funds received cash contributions totaling $17,406,150, made independent expenditures of $9,185,586, and contributed $5,405,833 to other independent expenditure committees and funds during 2013 and 2014. Information on independent expenditure committees and funds starts on page 264.

During the 2013 and 2014 election cycle segment, 63% of all independent expenditures were made to influence state house races, 36% were made to influence the race for governor, and only 1% were made to influence the other constitutional office races. An itemization of the expenditures made for and against candidates during the election cycle segment begins on page 281.

State Public Subsidy Program
Payments to State Committees of Political Parties and Multicandidate Political Party Expenditures in 2013 - 2014

Ten percent of the amount designated on a state income or property tax return for a political party is paid to the state central committee of that party. The amount that political parties receive from the state public subsidy program must be deposited in a separate bank account and used only for multicandidate political party expenditures as defined in statute.* The following chart provides the amount paid to the central committee of each qualified political party, and the multicandidate political party expenditures made by the party in 2013 and 2014.
